Governor Vision Statement

Our ethos as a church of England School is captured in the vision of good seed growing in good soil. We endeavour to provide an environment in which we are all developing, learning and growing. Rooted in that vision, our policies have been developed.

Our goals are:

- The school's Christian vision is established and promoted at all levels and enables both pupils and adults to flourish
- Pupils feel safe, accepted, and understand their worth and potential
- Pupils achieve a good depth and breadth of education through creativity and joy in learning

To achieve this vision, governors will:
